

GUIDELINES FOR THE SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION IN THE ARCHDIOCESE OF OMAHA.

The following guidelines pertain to those non-adult persons already baptized and in full communion with the Roman Catholic Church. If you are seeking the guidelines for adult Catholics who, for whatever reason, were never confirmed or for those seeking the sacrament of Confirmation who are not baptized or who were baptized in another Christian tradition, please see Appendix A for help.

Those who seek to receive the sacrament of Confirmation from the Church are referred to in the following as “candidate for confirmation,” or simply “candidate,” or by the more traditional plural term confirmandi. The solemn Mass at which the sacrament of Confirmation is conferred is referred to below as the “celebration of the sacrament.”

The following guidelines are divided into three sections: the basic requirements for preparation, the guidelines for formation, and elements of the liturgical celebration of the sacrament on the day of Confirmation. Appendix B provides suggested hymns and the Planning Form for Eucharistic Liturgies with the Archbishop of Omaha, which is to be filled out and returned to the Archbishop’s office at least two (2) weeks before the celebration of the sacrament.

These guidelines are not exhaustive of the policies of the Archdiocese of Omaha, but are meant to provide pastors, Directors of Religious Education, catechists, parents, sponsors and candidates for Confirmation with necessary information. For a list of the policies, please refer to the most current edition of the Archdiocese of Omaha’s Pastoral Policies Handbook, available at the Archdiocesan website <https://archomaha.org/clergy>.

Questions regarding the following can be made to the Coordinator of Catechist Certification in the Office of Evangelization & Catechesis: 402.557.5610

PREPARATION FOR CONFIRMATION – BASIC REQUIREMENTS:

1. The preferred time for Confirmation in the Archdiocese of Omaha is between the ages of thirteen (13), eighth grade, and eighteen (18), before the senior year of high school.
2. The candidate for Confirmation must be a baptized Catholic. If they are not, see Appendix A.
3. A sponsor must be chosen.
4. The sponsor may not be the candidate’s parent.
5. The sponsor may be of either gender.
6. The sponsor must be at least sixteen (16) years of age. However, as it is crucial that a sponsor be sufficiently mature for this role, it is recommended that parents and the candidate collaborate on choosing an adult sponsor with whom the candidate can speak about his/her faith.

7. The sponsor of a candidate for Confirmation must be a Catholic in good standing with the Catholic Church who has already received the sacraments of initiation: Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist.
8. Being “in good standing” refers to those who regularly practice their faith and believe what the Church believes, having accepted the responsibilities of their baptismal promises. If the proposed sponsor is married, he/she must be in a valid marriage according to the norms of the Catholic Church. Whether the sponsor is married or not, he/she must be living a lifestyle consonant with the moral teachings of the Church. All sponsors must be free from the burden of canonical penalties.
9. Non-Catholics may not be sponsors.
10. When appropriate, the godparent from baptism may be the sponsor for Confirmation. In such cases, the above norms should be followed.

FORMATION FOR THE SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION:

1. The goal of formation for the sacrament of Confirmation is to instill greater appreciation of the sacramental life and to foster perfection of charity through an increased desire for a life in relationship with Jesus Christ and His Church.
2. It is primarily the responsibility of the parents to present their children for the sacrament of Confirmation having prepared them, with the help of catechetical institutions.
3. It is the special responsibility of pastors to see that all those who are baptized come to the fullness of Christian initiation and are carefully prepared for Confirmation.
4. It is the pastor’s, catechists’ and parents’ responsibility to ensure and affirm that a candidate for Confirmation is suitably instructed and properly disposed for the renewal of the candidate’s baptismal promises and reception of Confirmation.
5. Catechetical programs offered through the parishes exist to help the people of God form their children for the fullness of life with Christ in the Church. They provide unique opportunities of formation within the local Church, with a candidate’s peers and with catechists who can model this life.
6. Pastors and/or their appointee(s) are encouraged to meet with the parents of the candidates seeking the sacrament of Confirmation, so that parents might learn the nature of the sacrament and their special responsibility in the preparation of their children and the conferral of the sacrament.
7. The Rite of Confirmation should be an integral part of the cognitive formation of the candidate for Confirmation, who should be familiar with the gestures, responses, and prayers of the Rite.
8. Since the sacrament of Confirmation is a sacrament of the living, it is essential that an opportunity to receive the sacrament of Reconciliation be provided to the candidate within a short period of time prior to reception of the sacrament of Confirmation.
9. Although choosing a saint name is a custom highly encouraged, it is not a canonical requirement for the sacrament of Confirmation. In the Archdiocese of Omaha, a candidate can be confirmed under his/her baptismal name or a virtue or mystery of the faith (see CCC #2156). Care should be taken that the candidate chooses a name that it is not foreign to Christian sentiment.
10. If parents choose to homeschool their child in preparation for the sacrament of Confirmation, they ought to produce for the pastor or his appointee(s) the curriculum which they intend to use.

Parents of this candidate for Confirmation ought to attend all meetings required for parents. See Appendix D for more information.

11. Even though no one is to require more of the candidate than that which is required by the Church for the reception of this sacrament, ensuring proper preparation is the special responsibility of the pastor (C.890). The sacrament of Confirmation is not to be used as a means to secure and maintain an individual's attendance in religious education programs.
12. To aid pastors, catechists and parents in assessing the candidate's knowledge and disposition for the sacrament, the Office of Evangelization & Catechesis provides an instrument for assessment attached here in Appendix C.

THE CONFIRMATION CEREMONY:

1. The sacrament of Confirmation should be conferred within the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass with the participation of the parish community as much as is possible.
2. Scheduling for the celebration of the sacrament will be done by the Archbishop's Office in collaboration with the pastor or his appointee. Scheduling for a fall Confirmation ceremony takes place in the preceding winter. Scheduling for a spring Confirmation ceremony takes place in the preceding late-summer.
3. In order to maintain a reasonable schedule for the Archbishop, a minimum number of twenty (20) candidates is required for each separate ceremony.
4. If a parish has less than twenty (20) to be confirmed, consideration should be given to combining with a neighboring parish. In some cases celebration of the sacrament will need to be scheduled once every two or three years.
5. If a parish has more than one hundred (100) persons to be confirmed – excepting the Cathedral or other large churches – consideration should be given to having more than one celebration of the sacrament.
6. It is fitting that priests of the deanery are invited and encouraged to be present for this important celebration.
7. One (1) month before the celebration of the sacrament, the Planning Form for Eucharistic Liturgies with the Archbishop of Omaha must be completed and returned to the Archbishop's Office. The form is available below in Appendix B, and from the Archdiocesan website or directly from the Archbishop's Office. It can also be completed via this link: https://archdioceseofomaha.formstack.com/forms/planning_form_for_eucharistic_liturgies_with_the_archbishop. The printed program listing the confirmandi must be sent to the Archbishop's Office at least one (1) week before the ceremony.
8. The readings for the celebration of the sacrament must be from the Lectionary (Vol. IV, pg. 330-354) if the celebration occurs on a weekday, and must be read by a mandated lector.
9. On Sundays of Ordinary Time the readings can be from the proper Mass for the Rite of Confirmation or from the proper for the day. On weekdays and Sundays in Ordinary Time, the orations from the Rite of Confirmation are used and red vestments are worn.
10. On Sundays during Advent, Christmastide, Lent and Eastertide as well as on any Solemnities, the readings and prayers for the celebration of the sacrament must be from the proper for the day.

11. Music for the celebration of the sacrament should reflect the solemnity of the occasion. Suggestions can be found in Appendix B. Ordinarily, the responsorial psalm ought to be sung.
12. The ordinary minister of the sacrament of Confirmation is the Archbishop or his delegate.
13. The Rite of Confirmation is to be followed as it appears in the ritual book.
14. The Archbishop or his delegate will bring the Chrism to the ceremony.
15. The Archbishop asks that any formal group pictures with him take place approximately 20 minutes before the ceremony begins.
16. Confirmandi must be dressed appropriately and modestly in recognition of the solemnity of the occasion. It is permissible for an alb or similar garment to be put on over the appropriate and modest clothing of the confirmandi.
17. A stole is not permissible for confirmandi as it is a sign of ordained ministry.
18. The confirmandi with or without their sponsors form part of the entrance procession, following the crucifix.
19. Confirmandi may not serve as ministers (server, lector, general intercessions, EMHC, or choir member) during the celebration of the sacrament. They may participate as gift bearers.
20. After the Gospel but before the homily, the confirmandi are presented to the Archbishop or his delegate. The pastor (or another priest, deacon, or catechist) presents the confirmandi. Each candidate is called by name. The candidates should stand as they are called and remain standing until the Archbishop asks them to be seated.
21. For the anointing, confirmandi and their sponsors will stand before the Archbishop or his delegate two-by-two (2 lines) and stand close to him.
22. Following the anointing, please have warm water, soap or lemon, rinse water and towel available.
23. Priests and deacons present shall serve as Ministers of Holy Communion – Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion (EMHCs) are to be used only if necessary.
24. The newly confirmed form part of the procession from the church at the conclusion of the ceremony, following the crucifix. They should proceed directly to the reception, or other place of assembly where the Archbishop will be available for informal individual photos.
25. The giving of certificates should take place outside of the ceremony for the sacrament.
26. Following the celebration of the sacrament, the pastor will see that the 1) name of the minister, 2) those confirmed, 3) parents, 4) sponsor and 5) the date and place of Confirmation are recorded in the Confirmation registry book.
27. The pastor must ensure that the notation of Confirmation is made in the Baptismal register if the confirmed was also baptized in the same church. Otherwise, the pastor must inform the current pastor of the place of baptism about the conferral of Confirmation so that a notation is made in the baptismal register.
28. The parish sacramental registry books are to be available for review by the Archbishop when he comes for the celebration of the sacrament of Confirmation.

CONFIRMATION FOR ADULT, BAPTIZED CATHOLICS NEVER CONFIRMED OR FOR CONVERTS

The following are guidelines summarizing the Archdiocesan Pastoral Policies for those who seek the sacrament of Confirmation but who are:

- Baptized, Catholic adults (18 years or older) who, for whatever reason, were never Confirmed, or
- Baptized, Catholic children (age 7 or higher) who never received Reconciliation, Eucharist or Confirmation, or
- Baptized Christian, non-Catholics (adult or child age 7 or higher) coming into full communion, or
- Unbaptized adults or children age 7 or higher.

The appropriate section in the Pastoral Policies is section 3.2.2. Norms for the Rite of Baptism and Confirmation on the Easter Vigil Mass are not included in this Appendix. Questions about the following ought to be directed to the Chancellor's Office.

1. Adult Catholics who never formally left the Catholic Church but who were never confirmed as young people should be confirmed by the Archbishop or his delegate in the parish celebration of Confirmation.
2. It is recommended that the adults not be made to go through the formation process for children preparing for Confirmation. Rather, the pastor or his appointee should offer catechesis with this adult separately according to the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults.
3. Within marriage preparation, it is highly recommended that the future spouses will have received the sacrament of Confirmation before marriage unless grave inconvenience precludes it (canon 1065 §1).
4. Pastors and associate pastors have the faculty to confirm in the following circumstances:
 - i. When one baptizes a person who is no longer an infant (age 7 or higher);
 - ii. When one receives a person, who is no longer an infant (age 7 or higher), and is already validly baptized in another Christian denomination into full communion with the Catholic Church;
 - iii. When receiving the profession of faith of one who is no longer an infant (age 7 or higher) and who was baptized a Catholic but never catechized (i.e., never received the sacraments of Reconciliation or Eucharist);
 - iv. In the case of readmission to communion of a baptized Catholic who left the faith through public, total repudiation. However, prior to receiving Confirmation, the person must also be reconciled to the Church through the Sacrament of Penance and have the penalty of excommunication lifted;

GUIDELINES FOR CONFIRMATION: APPENDIX A

- v. In the case of a baptized Catholic who, without fault, has been instructed in a non-Catholic religion or adhered to a non-Catholic religion.

- 5. Priests who baptize those who are no longer infants (age 7 or higher) or who receive non-Catholic Christians who are no longer infants (age 7 or higher) into the full communion of the Church are to confirm them immediately following baptism or at the reception of a baptized adult Christian into full communion with the Church.
- 6. For validity, Confirmation must be conferred in the same ceremony by the same priest who is the minister of baptism or reception or readmission into the Church.
- 7. A priest may also seek special delegation from the Archbishop to celebrate confirmation (canon 884 §1). Delegation must be sought, for example, to confirm an adult Catholic who never left the Church but for whatever reason was not confirmed at the normal age for confirmation. This delegation is required for validity.
- 8. Any priest may confirm baptized Catholics of any age if there is a danger of death (canon 883 3°).

GUIDELINES FOR CONFIRMATION: APPENDIX B

Suggested Liturgical Hymns for Confirmation Ceremony

Entrance - Come, Holy Ghost (Tune; Lambilotte); Sing with all the Saints in Glory (Tune: Hymn to Joy); Lift High the Cross - longer, and uses a refrain (Tune: Crucifer); Holy God, We Praise Thy Name (Tune: Grosser Gott); Holy, Holy, Holy (Tune: Nicaea)

In Advent: Come, O Long-expected Jesus (Tune: Stuttgart); In Advent: O Come, O Come Emmanuel - longer, and uses a refrain (Tune: Veni Emmanuel)

In Lent: Lord, Who Throughout these Forty Days (Tune: St. Flavian); In Lent: I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say (Tune: Kingsfold)

In Easter: The Strife is O'er (Tune: Victory); In Easter: O Sons and Daughters (Tune: O filii et filie)

Psalm - Lord, send out your Spirit (use verses from Pentecost or Pentecost vigil)

Rite of Confirmation - Veni Creator Spiritus (chant); any version of the Sequence from Pentecost Sunday; Send us your Spirit (Haas); The Spirit of God (Lucien Deiss); Veni Creator Spiritus - Taize; Psalm Refrain/Verses from Pentecost Sunday or Vigil Responsorial Psalm.

Offertory - Any of the above - or The King of Love (Tune: St. Columba); A setting of Psalm 23; Lord of All Hopefulness (Tune: St. Columba); A Choral or Instrumental piece with the character of the above selections or Holy Spirit theme.

Mass Settings - Mass in Honor of Saint Cecilia; Chant Mass from the Roman Missal.

Communion - An appropriate Eucharistic Hymn; Settings of Psalm 34 or Psalm 42

Hymn of Thanksgiving - Now Thank We All Our God (Tune: Nun dankett alle Gott); O God, Our Help in Ages Past (Tune: St. Anne)

After Dismissal - With the Archbishop and ministers and sometimes confirmandi processing out, it is nice to have festive music to accompany that, as people like to watch, depending upon context. If there is not the possibility of Instrumental Music after dismissal, it may be preferable to sing a hymn to accompany the ministers' process out. Both suggested hymns of Thanksgiving would work for this, or Lift High the Cross would be suitable as well.

Planning for the Celebration of the sacrament of Confirmation

In the following pages you will find the “Planning Form for Eucharist Liturgies with the Archbishop of Omaha.” Please use this form in the planning of the ceremony for the sacrament of Confirmation. This completed form must be submitted to the Archbishop’s Office no later than two (2) weeks before the celebration of Confirmation. A digital version of this form is available at this link:

https://archdioceseofomaha.formstack.com/forms/planning_form_for_eucharistic_liturgies_with_the_archbishop

A printed program listing the names of the confirmandi must be submitted to the Archbishop’s Office at least one (1) week before the ceremony.

Archbishop Lucas requests that formal group pictures with him be taken approximately twenty (20) minutes before the ceremony so that the dismissal at the end of Mass is indeed a dismissal. Informal pictures with the Archbishop are welcome at the reception.

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR FORMATION

Preparation for the sacrament of Confirmation starts at Baptism, through which we enter into the body of Christ. This initiation continues through the Eucharist and is completed in the sacrament of Confirmation but is not the end of formation in the Christian life of virtue.

The goal of the immediate formation for the sacrament of Confirmation is discipleship in Jesus Christ, participation in the life and mission of the Catholic Church as well as the personal, spiritual growth of each young person. This formation is the result of collaboration between parents and pastors. It is ultimately the responsibility of pastors to be sure that the candidate for Confirmation is properly prepared. Formation can begin within two years prior to the actual Confirmation day.

The following are recommendations for formation.

Catechesis:

The curriculum for catechesis during formation for the sacrament of Confirmation should come from the list of approved texts from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. Catechesis for the sacrament should:

- teach that Confirmation increases and deepens the grace of Baptism, imprinting an indelible character on the soul.
- teach that Confirmation strengthens the baptismal conferral of the Holy Spirit on those confirmed in order to incorporate them more firmly in Christ, strengthen their bond with the Church, associate them more closely with the Church's mission, increase in them the gifts of the Holy Spirit and help them bear witness to the Christian faith in words and deeds.
- teach about the role of the Holy Spirit, his gifts, and his fruits.
- be developmentally appropriate and include retreat experiences.
- include instruction on the Rite of Confirmation and its basic symbols: the imposition of hands, the anointing with Sacred Chrism and the words of the sacramental formula.
- ensure that parents and sponsors are involved in the catechetical preparation of the children for Confirmation.
- teach that the bishop is the ordinary minister of the sacrament of Confirmation

Retreat:

Retreats are an opportunity to encounter Jesus in a personal way. Along with instruction on our Catholic faith, a retreat hopes to make possible a connection between “the what” of our faith and “the One” with whom we are being called into relationship, Jesus Christ. By the strength of this relationship with Christ, the hope is that the candidate will grow in the sacramental life of the fully Christian person, i.e. to “live lives worthy of the gospel.”

(Phil 1:27) Indeed, the Church recognizes that Confirmation formation ought to be preparation for the Christian commitments of adult life (see Catechesi Tradendae no. 39).

Therefore, retreats for Confirmation are ideal times to form the participants in prayer, both private and communal. Forms of prayer can be taught including traditional prayers and devotions like Eucharistic Adoration, the Rosary, the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, the Angelus, etc. An excellent starting point for retreat is prayer using the Sacred Scriptures (lectio divina). This form of prayer can be both communal and personal. Pope Benedict XVI wrote that teaching the Word helps “to stress anew something we risk taking for granted in everyday life: the fact that God speaks and responds to our questions.” (Verbum Domini no. 4)

The retreat can also offer experiences of the gifts of the Holy Spirit, i.e. how these gifts affect real people in the real world. For this reason, taking time during a retreat to speak about the Saints is a good practice. Their lives of heroism are living examples of the gifts of the Holy Spirit and so can inspire the candidate as well as teach them how the Catholic life is lived concretely.

Service:

In a special way, the sacrament of Confirmation is to graciously fill Christians with the desire to serve the Church and the world. God’s many gifts to us have been given so that we might share them with our families and with our Church. The testimony of the early Church bears witness to the fact that service in stewardship for the community was a hallmark of authentic Christian life. Therefore, service by candidates for Confirmation is an important aspect of preparation and an opportunity for formation.

The Social Teaching of the Catholic Church is an outgrowth of the encounter with Jesus Christ who loved the poor so dearly: the poor in health, the poor in spirit, the socially poor, and the materially poor. The “preferential option for the poor” is a helpful guide for discernment in service. The long tradition of the Corporal Works of Mercy is another guide for directing service projects.

The formation around service in stewardship for the Church should include the teaching that anything done in love can be a moment of service for God, and thus the Church and the world. This was the great insight of St. Thérèse of Lisieux whose “little way” showed us that “Without love, deeds, even the most brilliant, count as nothing,” and that “Our Lord does not look so much at the greatness of our actions, nor even at their difficulty, but at the love with which we do them.” As we read in the letter of St. James, “faith without works is dead” (2:20), and works must be done in love.

The candidate who performed the task should be encouraged to reflect on the service either orally or in writing. In such reflections the candidates would be encouraged to make the connection between their service and their own personal relationship with Christ and with the mission of the Church.

Mass Attendance:

The proper disposition and preparation for the sacrament of Confirmation presumes regular participation at Sunday Mass. Mass attendance for the candidate for Confirmation can be a complicated issue, because the parents may not go to Mass themselves. For those candidates who do not attend Mass regularly, but have expressed a desire to do so, it is recommended that the pastor contact the parents directly in order to follow up about this issue.

CONFIRMATION INTERVIEWER'S FORM

This form is meant to be an aide to a pastor and/or his delegate(s) for fulfilling his obligation and right to assess the preparedness of a candidate for the sacrament of Confirmation. The majority of the questions are meant to cover the basic cognitive or intellectual content of the Catholic faith. However, there are also questions which hope to elicit from the candidate a response of personal experience with the faith, or the affective content of the faith. The hope is that formation for the candidate will instill a greater appreciation of the sacramental life and foster a desire for life in relationship with Jesus Christ and His Church. Assessing a candidate, therefore, should take into consideration the cognitive and the affective content of the faith.

Each question is followed by a grid of possible answers. The best answer is considered to be worth 4 points. This form provides suggested criteria for assessing the candidate's answers. Once a score is determined for each question, the interviewer is invited to add them together into an aggregate score. A scale for grading has been provided at the end of this form. For more questions about this aide, contact the Office of Evangelization & Catechesis 402.557.5610.

6. What can you tell me about the Mass? How is Mass part of your prayer life? Do you actively participate weekly and on Holy Days? Why or why not?

- Mass was established by Jesus at the Last Supper so that by participating in his death and resurrection we can renew and make real our salvation. The Mass renews the sacrifice of Jesus on the cross as the sacrifice offered by the Church. Catholics fulfill the obligation of the 3rd commandment by attending Mass on Sundays and designated Holy Days . The most important part of Mass is receiving the Holy Eucharist, the body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ. By attending Mass on a weekly basis, we grow in our faith and in holiness as a person.

GUIDELINES FOR CONFIRMATION: APPENDIX D

HOMESCHOOLING PARENTS

In Baptism parents and the people of God take on the responsibility to prepare the child for the fullness of initiation into life in Christ.

This initiation is the responsibility of the family and the Church. As the Rite of Confirmation states, “The initiation of children into the sacramental life is for the most part the responsibility and concern of Christian parents.” However, this responsibility of parents is met through “the help of catechetical institutions.” Thus, it is “the responsibility of the pastors to see that all the baptized come to the fullness of Christian initiation and are carefully prepared for confirmation.” These two components of parental and pastoral responsibility ought to be reflected in the formation process.

Parents who, for the sake of fulfilling their responsibility, seek to homeschool their child in preparation for the sacrament of Confirmation should be reminded that this is a solemn responsibility. Therefore, homeschooling parents are obliged first to inform their pastor or his appointee that they intend to homeschool the candidate in preparation for the sacrament of Confirmation.

The pastor or his appointee is encouraged to meet with the parents and remind them that the catechetical tools of the parish are at their disposal to help them fulfill their responsibility. Also, because the pastor still retains the responsibility to determine that the candidate has been properly formed, parents should provide to the pastor or his appointee the information about the curriculum they intend to use in the formation of their child.

In the interest of standardizing formation requirements for the Archdiocese of Omaha, an assessment tool from the Office of Evangelization & Catechesis has been provided to pastors to assist in determining preparation. This tool may also be used in the assessment of candidates in school or parish religious education programs as well. It can be found in Appendix C.
