CORPORATE UNDERWRITING OPPORTUNITIES

One of the foundational elements for our successful corporate and business communities in Nebraska is strong and accessible education. In our 70 Archdiocesan schools, in Omaha and across northeastern Nebraska, the educators and administrators are providing high quality educational resources to thousands of students and families. Please join us in supporting and elevating educational opportunities in our communities by becoming a financial sponsor.

As a sponsor for the Archbishop's Dinner for Education, you will be included in our communications and marketing materials, which reach over 70,000 constituents. Additionally, the event hosts 1000 people on average, and your company's information will be on display. We also invite you to join us on September 22, 2022 at CHI Health Center for this wonderful celebration.

Your generous support can make a significant difference in the lives of many children and those who serve as educators.
